OPEN OCTOBER COURT TERM THIS MORNING

The Adams County court opened trials for the October term today with the hearing of witnesses in the morals case against Wasyly Dynka, New York City.

At the same time the court handed down opinions in two cases: the divorce proceeding brought by Clyde L. Little, 58 W. Middle St., against Dorothy J. (Binkley) Little, Avon, N. J., and the action to quiet title brought by Mrs. Eva M. Pape, Buford Ave., against the Gargol Exploration Co.

Jurors hearing the Dynka case include Robert Cole, Aspers R. D.; Clyde L. Decker, Gettysburg R. 4; George C. Fair, 113 Steinwehr Ave.; Harold O. Harner, Littlestown R. 2; Harry R. Mumert, East Berlin R. 2; Chester Ogden, Bendersville; Paul Rebert, Orrtanna; Howard Sharrar, Cash-town; Perry D. Sheaffer, Biglerville R. D.; Eugene Smyser, Idaville; George W. Stervig, Littlestown R. 1; and Charles W. Weikert, W. King St., Littlestown.

Petit jurors excused this morning were Robert Adams, Hanover R. 4; Fred W. King, Littlestown; Charles M. Lightner, 55 South St.; Edgar Moul, Abbottstown R. 1; and Francis J. Will, Littlestown.

In the Little divorce case the court held: "We have reluctantly come to the conclusion that we cannot grant a degree of divorce in this case on the grounds of indignities to person." The opinion noted that Mrs. Little became estranged from her soldier husband while he was stationed in Japan and that upon his return for Fort Monmouth, N. J., in May, 1957, the wife left him and their three children. But the court held that the letters and telephone conversations entered as testimony did not constitute indignities. The court held: "The state does not guarantee the success of marriages and the mere loss of affec-

CHAT WITH SON IN AFRICA BY SHORT WAVE

A chance conversation by the Rev. Louis Bowers, African missionary supported by St. James Lutheran Church here, with a local man about three weeks ago led Sunday to a young minister and his wife talking to his parents on Gettysburg R. 4 by short wave Sunday afternoon.

The Rev. Mr. Bowers, who left three weeks ago for Africa after a visit to his home church here, while in Gettysburg spoke to Walter B. Lane, local radio amateur, and in the course of conversation noted that the Rev. Thomas Lowe, another missionary in Africa, and son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lowe, Gettysburg R. 4, had adopted amateur radio work as a hobby. Lane gave Rev. Mr. Bowers the call letters of his station and other local amateur radio operators in the area.

Supreme Pontiff Of Roman Catholic Church Is Buried

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Pius XII was consigned to the ages Monday by the Roman Catholic Church he served as supreme pontiff for 19 troubled years.

A brilliant afternoon sun streamed through St. Peter's massive dome and cast a crown of light about the altar as the pontifical funeral began. An awed hush enveloped the religious and lay dignitaries present in the basilica, the world's largest church.

The deep-throated campanone, St. Peter's giant bell, tolled slowly and mournfully as the time for the funeral service came. In the immediate area of St. Peter's Square, life came to a standstill.

Guards At Attention
Under the great spiraling baldachin above the altar of the confession, noble guards in plumed helmets stood at attention. Present were ambassadors in formal diplomatic uniforms, prelates in somber robes and members of religious orders.

YOUNG MOTHER FATALLY HURT IN ODD MISHAP

A 24-year-old Gardner R. 2 wife and mother, Mrs. Janet Mae Rowles, was fatally injured Saturday night when her husband's car slipped off a jack and rolled over her. The death occurred Sunday morning in the Carlisle Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Rowles had gone for a drive Saturday evening, accompanied by their 2½-month-old daughter. The couple were planning to visit Mr. Rowles' parents, but decided against the visit because of the lateness of the hour. They turned back and at about 10:30 o'clock Saturday night their vehicle had a flat tire on the York Springs-Carlisle Rd. at the edge of Mt. Holly Springs.

The car was headed downgrade but Mr. Rowles was able to jack up the rear wheel in order to change the tire. He completed placing the new tire and wheel and slapped the hub cap on the wheel. When he did so the car rolled forward off the jack.

Front Wheel Crushed Skull
Mrs. Rowles had chosen that moment to walk in front of the car. The vehicle struck her and hurled her to the ground. A front wheel apparently passed over her head. The car came to a halt with the rear wheels resting on her arm and side.

The frantic father and husband sought to remove his wife but had to get into the car and back it before he could free her from the vehicle.

He placed his badly injured wife on the front seat beside their child and drove rapidly into Mt. Holly Springs to the home of Policeman Frank Stoezinger to seek his help. Mrs. Stoezinger called an ambulance to remove Mrs. Rowles to the Carlisle Hospital. Mrs. Rowles died at 7:15 o'clock Sunday morning at the hospital. Her body was removed to the Dugan Funeral Home in Bendersville where Dr. Donald D. Sachs, pathologist at the Carlisle Hospital, performed an autopsy Sunday afternoon to determine the cause of death.

FIREMEN LAY CORNERSTONE FOR NEW HALL

Judge W. C. Sheely told several hundred gathered for the laying of the cornerstone of the new fire company's new $25,000 building at Edge Grove Saturday afternoon: "It is fitting that this program be held on Columbus Day. Columbus showed the highest vision, courage and faith and as a result he found a new world."

"In all enterprise those three qualities are necessary for success. Any one alone is not enough. Without vision there is no need for courage and faith. Without courage and faith, vision cannot be brought to success."

"Here today we again show the successful completion of a project in which those three qualities combined. Father Harold Keller some 10 years ago had the vision to see the possibility of this fire company and this new home. He and you had the courage to go ahead. He had faith in you and you kept that faith and today the dream of a decade ago is a reality."

Lays Cornerstone

The new fire company was established 10 years ago by the then pastor of the church, Rev. Mr. Harold Keller.

U.S. Moon Rocket Pioneer Streaks To Fiery Death In Earth's Atmosphere Today

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. moon rocket Pioneer has swooped to probable disintegration in the earth's atmosphere after blazing a never-before-traveled path into space.

The instrument-laden vehicle didn't make it to the vicinity of the moon. But the Air Force claimed big gains in scientific information from the nearly two-day flight of the rocket, which reached a record of about 79,120 miles into space.

The Pentagon announced early today that the world's first known moon probe plunged back into the atmosphere at about 11 p.m. Sunday. It was assumed Pioneer then burned up from friction.

Died Over Pacific

Pioneer's final dive was believed to have come at a point over the south Pacific. There were no immediate reports of any visual sightings of the rocket's finish.

LAYMEN'S DUTY IS CITED BY SEN. ELLIOTT

"The task of spreading the Christian religion is not the duty of ministers only but the business of every common man," State Senator Douglas Elliott said in a Laymen's Sunday talk in the Presbyterian Church here Sunday morning.

Speaking before a capacity audience, Senator Elliott, who is vice president of Wilson College and an elder in the Falling Spring Presbyterian Church at Chambersburg, said: "There is no such thing as a proxy religion. Each man must have his own or none at all. He must propagate it or repudiate it. Religion must be spread by man to man. The minister is to be the colonel of the regiment and the real fighting is to be done by the men in the ranks."

"Don't follow the idea that seems to be held in some quarters that there is not to be any fighting at all or that the colonel's duty is to soothe the regiment or give them educational talks."

Text From Acts

The senator took his text from Acts 1:8 and pointed "two great truths" from that text. He said the first is that the Holy Spirit coming upon the disciples would communicate power and the second is that the disciples were to devote their lives to witnessing for the Lord Jesus Christ on a world-wide scale.

The power that was promised the disciples, the speaker said, was not the power of education, oratory, culture, prestige, fame, personality or riches but "the power of God working through these men."

Local laymen also took part in the service and there was an anthem "Nearer My God To Thee" by a men's sextette. The pastor, the Rev. Robert A. MacAskill, assisted with the service. The responsive reading was led by Allen S. Stauffer; the scripture was read by Dean Seymour B. Dunn and the morning prayer was by Dr. Robert Barnes.

Body Of Escapee From U.S. Alcatraz Is Found In Bay

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The unrecognizable body of tough Alcatraz convict Aaron Walter Burgett of Potts Camp, Mo., was found Sunday circling The Rock, from which he escaped Sept. 29. It was spotted by prison guard Lyndon M. Cropper, bobbing face down in San Francisco Bay 100 yards out. A Coast Guard cutter picked it up.

Warden Paul J. Madigan said he was convinced now that Ralph Coe and Theodore Cole, the only ones of 20 would-be escapees never accounted for, "drowned just as Burgett has. They just can't escape from here."

Carried Escapee Knife

Burgett, 28, fortified himself with artificial aides for the swim. The Missouri post office robber was found still wearing a plastic bag inflated for water wings. He had a plywood fin strapped to one shin. He still carried the sharp knife with which he threatened guard Harold Miller. He and convict Clyde Johnson, once labeled Public Enemy No. 1, gaged Mill and left him bound. Burgett entered the water, but Johnson didn't and was recaptured.

More than 1,000 of the GOP faithful were on hand Saturday afternoon as the state Republican candidates turned their big oratorical guns on their Democratic opponents at the Adams County GOP rally held at the South Mountain fairgrounds. Veteran campaigners said it was the largest Republican rally held in Adams County in many years.

All of the candidates placed major emphasis, in their remarks, on the importance of getting out the vote.

Gubernatorial candidate Arthur T. McGonigle urged that workers be particularly active and called on the women to "get to work on the telephone. During the last two weeks of this campaign," he said, "cut out all the gossip. Call everybody and tell them how important it is that they get out and vote the straight Republican ticket on November 4."

Challenges Opposition

McGonigle throws Democratic candidates a challenge. "The three of us here today," he said, referring to Hugh Scott, candidate for U.S. Senator; Andrew J. Gleason, candidate for secretary of internal affairs, and himself, "are willing to stand up here or any place in Pennsylvania with these men and let the people throw any questions and see who can give the answers."

McGonigle criticized the "waste" in the administration of Gov. George M. Leader and promised that he and the other Republicans will give Pennsylvania a well-managed government.

Candidates generally pointed to the threat of a wage tax if the Democrats are elected.

"Third Term"

"Dave Lawrence is seeking his third term as governor," Scott declared. He said that Lawrence was the real boss when George H. Earle was governor and is the boss today with Leader as governor.

Scott recounted his experience in the Congress as qualifying him for a seat in the senate. Leader, he said, "knows nothing" about foreign affairs. "Why," he pointed out, "he is urging that the president call a special session of Congress because of the Middle East crisis."

"What does he think this world accomplish?"

"What does he expect the Democrats, who voted for what President Eisenhower asked, to do? Reverse themselves just to make (Continued On Page 3) tion, or the lack of it, has not been made a ground for divorce by the legislature.

In its opinion in the Little case the court concluded: "While the plaintiff has not established a case of indignities to the person, he has established a case of desertion upon which he will be entitled to a divorce in May, 1959, unless other elements appear. We will retain jurisdiction over his complaint so that he might move to amend it at that time."

Agreement Expired

The court held in the Eva Pape case that a lease agreement held by William A. Hughes and William T. Weldie, trading as Gargol Exploration Company, for rights to minerals on Mrs. Pape's farm in northwestern Adams County, had expired in 1952.

In 1947 Mrs. Pape signed a lease by which R. G. Hess was given the right to remove minerals, paying Mrs. Pape 50 cents a ton. The lease was for five years or as long as commercially profitable quantities of minerals were underground on the farm. Hess later turned the lease over to the Gargol Exploration Co.

The court held that since the land was not being mined at the end of the five-year period the minerals underground were not commercially profitable at that time. "The fact that it might become commercially profitable to remove the materials as some time in the future, when conditions might change, would not operate to extend the term of the lease. The agreement contemplated a mutually profitable enterprise; it did not contemplate an unlimited, grant of mining right to the defendants upon which they might speculate."

The court's adjudication also held that the costs of the case are to be paid by the Gargol Exploration Co. and directed that the prothonotary issue a decree nisi. If no objections are filed in ten days, they decree will be entered as final.

Attorneys for LeRoy and Mildred C. LeVan, Gettysburg, R. I., and Garry A. Light, Hanover, R. I., told the court at noon today that settlement has been reached in the trespass action brought by Mr. and Mrs. LeVan against Light. The action, which has been scheduled for trial this term, resulted from an auto accident January 22, 1957, in front of the LeVan home.

U.S. Moon

indicated that radiation in the outer reaches of space may not be as intense as had been thought.

This could have strong bearing on future space flight by man, susceptible to possible radiation poisoning.

In this connection, the Air Force claimed Pioneer's epic flight marked the first time man has been able to measure radiation above 25,000 miles.

Maj. Gen. Bernard A. Schriever, chief of the Air Force Ballistic Missile Division, said, "These measurements will be of great assistance in improving instruments for future space and lunar probes and for putting man into space."

New Altitude Mark

Schriever, who has over-all responsibility for the Air Force moon rocket program, spoke at Inglewood, Calif., where the Air Force has been digesting worldwide tracking reports on Pioneer.

At the same time, Schriever claimed the rocket's 79,120-mile altitude mark is more than 27 times greater than any ever before achieved. The Air Force said this permitted the first direct measurements of the earth's magnetic field up to that height.

Further, the Air Force said Pioneer hit the fastest speed ever reached by a man-made vehicle—more than 23,450 miles an hour.

Hailed By Ike

Moscow newspapers published reports from the United States on progress of the Pioneer, but did not go beyond that.

President Eisenhower keynoted Western reaction in saying the probe was a tremendous achievement that will yield knowledge of great benefit to mankind.

Gen. Schriever said that as a result of the moon rocket's two-day flight "I feel that manned space travel is something we can look forward to with greater confidence than before."

He also expressed confidence that an orbit around the moon "can be achieved in the not too distant future."

Three Tries Authorized

He told newsmen "We're not going to waste any time" in trying another moon shot.

The Air Force has been authorized to make three lunar probes. Its first effort failed Aug. 17 when the rocket exploded after only 77 seconds in flight. The Pioneer launching was the second try.

After blastoff from Cape Canaveral, the three-stage rocket—a 52-ton monster 88 feet long—thundered to a speed of more than 23,450 miles an hour. This was enough to break clear of the earth's main gravitational pull, but gravity still exerts effects in the distant areas Pioneer reached.

As it turned out, that initial push was not enough to reach the objective.

Peak At 27 Hours

Word that the moon probe had started to fall came toward evening Sunday.

Dr. Louis G. Dunn, president of the Space Technological Laboratories, told a news conference Pioneer had reached its maximum altitude 27 hours after launching.

Brig. Gen. O. J. Rittland, vice commander of the Air Force Ballistic Missile Division, attributed Pioneer's failure to reach its planned objective in part to its going off course—to its deviating "above the planned trajectory."

Causes Of Failure

Another specialist said the rocket began its flight 3½ degrees higher than expected.

Dunn said the deviation in course was believed due to a drift in the automatic pilot mechanism of the first stage of the rocket.

He said another major reason for Pioneer falling short was that the rocket didn't develop enough thrust to make the planned journey.

Dunn told of efforts by ground teams to fire by remote control a still unused rocket in the nose of the Pioneer, hoping possibly to put the vehicle in orbit around the earth. Malfunction of batteries prevented this, he said.

Worley Credited

Scott charged that Leader is taking credit for things that his administration didn't accomplish. He "takes credit for the gas tax refund," Scott said, "but it was your own Assemblyman Worley who got that started."

The senatorial candidate was referring to the tax refund available to farmers who use gasoline for non-highway purposes.

Francis Worley, candidate for reelection as representative in Adams County, said, "My record for the people of Adams County and for the people of the Commonwealth speaks for itself. That record is well written."

Bean soup, hot dogs and cold drinks were served to those attending the rally. Members of the Young Republicans of the county were active in the distribution of campaign literature, buttons and signs.

princedoms by Pope Pius, participate in placing the body in the coffin.

Sing Funeral Dirge

The body is first wrapped in the red silk drape of the funeral couch and placed in the cypress casket. After its cover is sealed it is placed inside the lead coffin, together with the papal crest, a Latin scroll enumerating Pius' papal achievements and a red velvet satchel containing one each of all the coins and medals struck during his rule.

Then, as the archpriest intones a Gregorian chant, the double coffin is deposited in the large one of oak.

While the choir sings a funeral dirge, the triple coffin is attached to a system of pulleys and hoists, slowly moved before the confessional altar and lowered deep into the grotto beneath St. Peter's. The burial place for the pontiff is near the tomb of St. Peter, beneath the Altar of the Confession and in a chapel that has not been finished. In front of the spot is the tomb of Pope Clement VIII who died March 3, 1605.

The decision to bury Pius XII there was made by the cardinals Sunday and announced today.

Carried On Shoulders

The throne bearers who carried the pontiff in life slowly bore the body on their shoulders toward the altar. The face was waxed in death.

The ceremonies began precisely at 4 p.m. with a slow procession of the parish priests of Rome toward the Altar of the Confession. Behind them, in a slow funeral march, walked uniformed members of the papal household.

The dignitaries took up their positions in a great circle surrounding the catafalque which supported the body of Roman Catholicism's 261st pope.

Sing "Miserere"
The surpliced choir of the Julian Chapel burst into the unaccompanied chords of a "Miserere" which legend says was composed by King David.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO
H. Rafter and Bro., of Littlestown, had on exhibition at the York Fair a very beautiful falling-top Buggy, for which a first class premium was awarded.

Business of every kind is improving at New Oxford since the Railroad has reached there. New stores and shops of various kinds are being started — and there is at present a scarcity of houses.

Our Railroad: The Baltimore Patriot of Thursday last has a very favorable article in regard to Our Railroad, for which we regret we have not room today. It speaks of its rapid progress to completion, of the erection of the depot at this place, of the confidence in the success of the improvements, and alludes to the probability of its extension to Wabashboro, etc., and of the importance of the trade to Baltimore; is of the opinion that the opening will take place about the 1st of November; and closes with the following remarks:

"We cannot to highly commend the energy and enterprise of our Gettysburg neighbors — for they will soon be in very close proximity to us — in carrying forward so successfully this much wanted improvement."

The election is now over and of course our paper will not be occupied as it has been for some weeks past with political articles, but will present its usual variety of interesting and profitable matter. We felt this fall that we had a duty to perform as the Editor of a journal to arouse the people to a sense of duty, and feeble as our voice was, we have reason to believe that voice was not in vain, as the result shows. We have achieved a victory which will tell hereafter. We felt that there was the power in this County to redeem itself if encouraged.

We strived to give that encouragement and in a great degree succeeded. Our friends now feel their strength; and the new year will bring all things back "as they were" in the good old times of Whig ascendancy.

The XVIIIth Congressional District: It is with no ordinary gratification that we are permitted to announce to the readers of "The Sentinel," the redemption of our Congressional District and the triumphant election of our gallant young townsman, Edward McPherson. The active part taken by the Sentinel in this work, as well as to redeem the County, was the result of a firm conviction that the honor, the interests, and the glory of our Free Institutions were directly involved in the endorsement or rebuke by the People of the despotic and ruinous policy of Mr. Buchanan's Administration.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
A new passenger locomotive was received for the Gettysburg and Harrisburg road on Saturday last, and in size and weight is much larger than any engine on the C.V.R.R. It is handsomely lettered and bears the inscription, "Jay Cooke," but will be known by the employees of the road as No. 6. She is guaranteed to draw ten loaded coaches at a rate of 25 miles with a rise of 85 feet to the mile. She has all the latest improvements and looks beautiful.

Monday morning at 10:30 Dr. Hay received a despatch from Rev. Mr. Wolf, Madras, India, announcing their arrival. The despatch was sent on the same day and reached here within a short time. What a marvelous change telegraphy has made in the communication of news.

A thief got into the cigar factory of W. H. Little, McSherrytown, one night last week and carried off 3,500 cigars.

Master George Hawkins, of this place, last week brought to this office a Sun-flower that measured 3 feet, 4 inches in diameter.

Today's Talk

ADJUSTMENT
Within the mind of an intelligent person there is always an adjustment going on. The powers within are constantly being smoothed into efficient shape, while the entire personality keeps enriching itself.

A machine needs constant attention and a renewal of worn parts. The human brain is no different. It needs constant repair and an adjustment of its many faculties. If you fail to wind your watch it will run down and stop. So many people forget to put their brains in order, so they stop functioning. Every one of us needs a constant careful readjustment, physically and mentally.

Adjustments are essential equipment. Even our friendships need to be kept in constant and efficient repair. We need to adjust ourselves to various changes. Even events challenge and tell us to fit ourselves to the times.

We are influenced every day of our lives. Beauty creeps in. Nature keeps whispering new mysteries and miracles to us. How wonderful is man! How great is the universe! about which we really know next to nothing. But we are restless. We want to add a Moon to our exploits. As though the Earth needed any more discoveries or companionate Moons! If we reach the Moon, and don't like the look of it, what then? They would then call the Earth fickle and unbalanced! We have an Earth that needs all the improving we can give to it.

We are the ones who need a radical adjustment, not the glorious solar system. We are the imperfect ones. Let us map out paradise among ourselves — here and now! This is God's world, created for each one of us.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Just Be Kind." Protected, 1958, by The George Matthews Adams Service

Just Folks

ON LOSING A GAME
Though man should always play to win,

When he is forced to choose
That game he should not enter in
Which he can't bravely lose.

For he who ventures for a gain,
Whatever be the stake,
Must sometimes find his skill in vain

And failure's losses take.

So throw the dice or pitch the card
Or run the speedy mile,
And then if failure bumps you hard
Just take it with a smile.

For poor the man, what's his name,
When all is said and done,
Who cannot play a losing game
And still enjoy the fun.

ROUND TABLE

UPS EARNINGS TO $1,336,364

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
Round Table is the world's richest horse. But on the basis of the frequent trips the 2-year-olds of 1958 are making to the bank, the new champion's reign may be a short one.

The 4-year old from Travis M. Kerr's barns finally overhauled Nashua Saturday when he won the $123,850 Hawthorne Gold Cup and collected $73,250. This boosted his earnings to $1,336,364 compared with the $1,288,565 won by Nashua before his retirement two years ago.

Sets Track Records
After failing in three rich races to pick up the necessary cash to put him on top, Round Table accomplished the feat with a track record performance of 1:59.4-5 for one and one-quarter miles. Under Willie Shoemaker he finished 2¼ lengths in front of Swoon's Son, who ran his total earnings to $970.65. And as the favorite the Table paid $3.40.

Round Table won only $73,326 as a 2-year old. But First Landing from C. T. Chenery's stable already has banked $215,970 following his triumph in last Saturday's $151,300 Champagne Stakes for juveniles at Belmont Park.

And First Landing is not even the top money winning 2-year old. That honor goes to Restless Wind, who has won $288.04 even though he couldn't do better than fourth back of First Landing, Tomy Lee and intentionally in the Champagne.

MSM Soccer Team, Harriers Beaten

The Mt. St. Mary's College soccer team suffered its first loss after two victories when it bowed to Howard University 5-1 Saturday afternoon at Emmitsburg. Today the Mountaineers host Gettysburg College.

The Mount cross-country team also lost to Howard on Saturday, 29-26. The MSM harriers will meet Gallaudet at Emmitsburg Wednesday.

SENIOR LOOP WINS 6-2 TILT

NEW YORK (AP) — The Big Town got its first look at long-time favorite Willie Mays in more than a year Sunday and found Say-Hey little changed from a season in San Francisco.

The occasion was an exhibition game at Yankee Stadium matching Mays' National League All-Stars with an American League team managed by the Yankees' Mickey Mantle.

It was no contest, with Mays and Richie Ashburn of the Phillies combining for seven hits in a 6-2 romp. The crowd was announced as 21,129.

Mays, runner-up to Ashburn in the NL batting race this season, had a triple and three singles in five at-bats while Ashburn went 3-for-4 and scored four runs. Each stole a base while the National Leaguers had their fun behind the combined four-hit pitching of Pittsburgh's Bob Friend, Los Angeles' Johnny Podres and Philadelphia's Dick Farrell.

Whitey Ford of the Yankees, and Billy Pierce and Dick Donovan of the White Sox pitched for Mantle's club.

AUSTRALIANS WIN GOLF TITLE

By JOHN FARROW
ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)—Australia won the World Amateur team championship of golf and the big Eisenhower Trophy today by defeating the United States by two strokes in an 18-hole playoff.

The three low scorers of the four-man Australian team compiled an aggregate score of 222 to 224 for the three low U.S. players.

The playoff, like the main part of the 29-nation competition, was decided on aggregate scores for the three low men on each team. Australia and the U.S. tied in the 72-hole competition Saturday with 918 totals.

Fires Par 72
Today Bruce Devlin shot a par 72 over the testing 6,936-yard Old Course of St. Andrews and Peter Toogood and Bob Stevens had 75.

For the United States, Charlie Coe of Oklahoma City, the U.S. amateur champion, had a 75, Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N.C., a 75 and Dr. Frank (Bud) Taylor of Pomona, Calif., a 76 for the 224 aggregate.

Bill Hyndman of Philadelphia, U.S. leader through the main part of the competition, was out of contention today with a 78 and Australia's Doug Bachli, former British amateur champion, made the same score.

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Wahid Solh, a cousin of former Premier Sami Solh, was shot and killed by a sniper while driving through downtown Beirut today.

Solh was an official in the ministry of General Planning but was not otherwise active in politics.

He left the country just before President Fuad Chehab took office and after several plots and attempts on his life. He narrowly escaped one plot at the height of the rebellion against President Camille Chamoun when a mine blew up the car ahead of his on a road outside Beirut.

The general strike called by Chamoun's militant supporters in the Phalangist party began its fourth week today with the Phalangists announcing their determination to continue the strike until Premier Rashid Karami either resigns or forms a coalition cabinet. Intense political maneuvering over the weekend produced no satisfactory formula for ending the crisis.

Scattered firing could be heard in Beirut this morning. This reportedly was shooting in the air by rival factions trying to intimidate one another.

OKLAHOMA'S DEFEAT MAY END AN ERA

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS (AP) — Is the glamorous winning era of Bud Wilkinson at an end? Was Texas' 15-14 upset of Oklahoma Saturday the downward start to an average place in college football for the erstwhile terrible Big Red?

No one will say, but there are plenty who conclude this wasn't the great Oklahoma that won 50 games out of 51, had the all-time record streak of 47 straight, been No. 1 in the nation twice.

This Oklahoma team had a weakness against passes, something no one could remember before.

Royal Did It
It remained for a man who once played quarterback at Oklahoma under Wilkinson to exploit this weakness for his greatest victory.

He was Darrell Royal, who came to Texas last year charged with the task of picking up Longhorn fortunes and specifically with beating Oklahoma, one of the things that cost Coach Ed Price his job when he failed to do it in six years.

Royal brought to Dallas Saturday a team lacking experience, one that wasn't supposed to be nearly so good as the Longhorns of 1957, who lost to Oklahoma 21-7. The Sooners were given a 13-point bulge and that was considered conservative, although Oklahoma had shown a semblance of weakness the week before in a 6-0 victory over so-called Oregon.

But Texas scored first, led for more than three quarters, was overtaken early in the fourth period, then stormed back

More Jobs, Fatter Paychecks And Faster Rate Of Spending In Week's Business Upturn

By WALTER BREEDE JR.
AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — More jobs and fatter paychecks for factory workers, and a faster rate of spending in the nation's retail stores, put new zing this week in the economy's fall upturn.

Reporting a "significant improvement" in the job situation, the government announced that the number of jobless around the country dropped by 588,000 last month.

The decline — unusually large even for September — forced total unemployment down to 4,111,000. That's a new low for the year.

It was a foregone conclusion that the job picture would continue to improve in October.

Steel To Open
Bethlehem Steel Corp. was reported ready to re-start four or five more open-hearth steelmaking furnaces in the Buffalo, N.Y., area. Big United States Steel Corp. stepped up its production pace in the Pittsburgh district. Steel operations in the hard-hit Youngstown, Ohio, district were slated for one of the sharpest week-to-week gains of the year.

A rising trend in appliance sales was reported by Norge, Westinghouse, Frigidaire and Kelvinator.

Things were looking up for aluminum workers. Reynolds Metals Co. said it will return its aluminum reduction plant at Troutdale, Ore., to full capacity operations in three weeks. Alcoa set a faster production pace for its plants at Massena, N. Y., and Point Comfort, Tex.

Textiles Softening
Cotton textiles provided one of the few soft spots.

Cutbacks were ordered right and left. Some mills will shut down completely for the weeks that include Thanksgiving Day and Christmas.

With the job picture in other industries betting brighter by the hour, a new upsurge in consumer confidence was evident from Dallas to Detroit.

Market Soars
Department stores across the nation scored a seven per cent sales gain over the like 1957 week. Stock averages crashed through the roof again this week. A burst of buying on Friday sent the market to a new record high with an impact that left seasoned observers holding onto their hats. The day's business on the New York Stock Exchange totaled a whopping 4,610,000 shares — the heaviest volume this year.

For the week, total of 19,104,940 shares were traded, compared to 19,227,870 shares in the previous week and 15,573,710 shares in the corresponding week last year.

Bond sales totaled $30,098,000 this week compared to $29,839,000 for the previous week and $26,957,900 in the same 1957 week.

Looked Good
Wall Street evidently had scanned the latest business reports and found them good — particularly the rising production curve and price hikes for such key commodities as lead, zinc and copper.

Briefly over the business scene: A seat on the New York Stock Exchange sold this week for $100.000 — the highest price in more than two years.

Studebaker-Packard said dealer orders received so far for its new 1959 economy car, the Lark, amount to half the company's entire output of 1958 models. ... Maybe you haven't noticed, but the auto industry is spending six million dollars a year trying to find out what you like, and what you don't like, about its product. ... With Columbus Day at hand, Woolens and Worsteds of America Inc. points out that the textile industry owes a rising vote of thanks to the distinguished navigator. It was Christopher Columbus who brought the first wool-bearing sheep to the new world in 1493.

JEWISH TEMPLE HIT BY BLAST

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A massive dynamite explosion at a Jewish temple shattered Atlanta's racial calm Sunday and set off one of the most extensive investigations in the history of the Georgia capital.

The pre-dawn blast caused damage estimated at $200,000 to a wall and the interior of The Temple, home of the Hebrew Benevolent Congregation, in a fashionable section on Peachtree Road.

It was the first such incident in Atlanta but the fourth at Jewish centers in the South since mid-March.

Debris rained down over a 150-yard area. Houses were shaken half a mile away. No one was hurt.

The dynamiters escaped in the darkness.

Temple Beth El in Miami, Fla., and the Nashville, Tenn. Jewish Community Center were damaged by dynamite March 16. A Jacksonville, Fla. synagogue and a Negro school were dynamited April 28 and an attempt was made to blow up a temple in Birmingham, Ala. It failed when a fuse burned out.

OLAR, S. C. (AP) — All that's left of the ghost town of Buford's Bridge near here is a Methodist church.

Sherman's troops burned down all the other buildings in the town when they swept through in 1865.

The old church now serves as a site for family reunions of descendants of those who are buried in the churchyard.

CHICAGO (AP) — Educational television gets a boost when WTTW, Chicago's educational station, increases its operating power from 56,000 watts to 278,000. This will place it on a par in coverage competition with four commercial TV stations.

U. S. WILL CUT NAVAL FORCES NEAR FORMOSA

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is expected to begin reducing its naval forces in the Formosa Strait sometime soon, now that Red China has extended its Quemoey cease-fire for two more weeks.

President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles welcomed the Communist action Sunday as "good news."

Through a White House statement, they promised further efforts to seek a negotiated settlement of the Formosa problem.

See Crisis Ended
The impression in official Washington is that the seven-week-old crisis which took the world to the brink of war has ended. Officials believe that with this new truce extension the Communists have shown they do not intend to resume the heavy bombardment of Quemoey which they began Aug. 23. If future events confirm this, the United States will almost certainly begin cutting down the power of the re-enforced 7th Fleet in the Formosa area. Washington authorities commented that with the Communists not attacking, the military need for so powerful a force would decline.

Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy said on Formosa that U. S. forces would not remain in that area indefinitely, but added there were no plans to withdraw them at this time.

Dulles, Green Talk
The United States would not begin withdrawal "until the position of the Communist Chinese is made clear," he said.

In Washington, Dulles conferred for an hour with Sen. Theodore F. Green of Rhode Island, Democratic chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee. Green has publicly criticized the administration's stand in defending the Nationalist-held offshore islands.

Though Dulles and Green did not settle their policy differences, they joined in a warning to the Communists not to be misled by political argument in this country.

Even with the danger of a shooting conflict apparently receding, U. S. officials said they foresee difficult times ahead for this country. Some allies have not been too happy with the U. S. Formosa policy, and may press harder for a change with the return of more peaceful conditions.

See Pressure On Chiang
The United States may begin soon putting pressure on Nationalist China to start reducing its forces on the Quemoey and Matsu Islands near the Red China coast. But Nationalist President Chiang Kai-shek on Formosa has rejected the whole concept of cutting down his offshore garrison.

The first United States reaction to the extended cease-fire was given by White House press secretary James C. Hagerty in New York. Eisenhower was in New York but talked with Dulles by phone.

Hagerty said: "... The President and the secretary of state agreed that this was good news and that with the extension of the cease-fire it affords the government of the United States further chances to work out through negotiation a settlement of that problem in that area."

STOCKS MADE NEW ADVANCES

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market advanced strongly toward another record early this afternoon. Coppers and steels made strides.

Leading issues were up fractions to more than a point.

Trading was very heavy. A million shares were traded in the first hour. The ticker tape was late for periods of 18 and 5 minutes of the initial 60.

The turnover amazed Wall Street observers who had anticipated sluggish, semiholiday trading because of the Columbus Day observance. Banks and many business houses were closed.

A sharp upsurge in steel production and expectations that copper prices would be marked up again by custom smelters accompanied the rise in these stocks.

Airports, oils, rails, motors, drugs and other issues came along more moderately. Chemicals and rubbers were mixed.

The first hour volume was the biggest since 1,264,280 shares were traded in the first hour Jan. 16. Trading, while still active, slowed down a bit.

TALENT HUNT

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — The Hopps are a family of singular purpose. Daddy Hopp was a pharmacist from 1905 to his death in 1945. The family tradition has been carried royally. All four children, three daughters and a son, have become pharmacists.

TOTAL FARM WORKERS OFF 30 PER CENT

By RICHARD L. GRAVES
HARRISBURG (AP)—The number of persons working on Pennsylvania farms has dropped 30 per cent since 1950, a new U. S. government farm employment report shows.

The drop in the Commonwealth is greater than the national decline in farm employment, which fell by a quarter during the past eight years, but is about part for the northeastern states.

The figures represent the number of persons employed during the final week of each month and average out the ups and downs of seasonal employment.

Decline Every Year
The averages indicated that Pennsylvania's farm employment at the end of 1957 totaled 214,000, compared to an average 302,000 in 1957.

In each of the years since 1950 there has been a decline in both the number of family and hired farm workers and the rate of decrease has been sharper in recent years.

Most farm observers felt that the decline in farm employment represents primarily a decline in the number of farms. That would be particularly reflected in the number of farm family workers.

Another Drop
The decline in farm family workers in Pennsylvania has been about 26 per cent since 1950 — a drop from about 235,000 to 174,000. That includes farm operators doing one or more hours of farm work a week and members of their families doing more than 15 hours or work a week without cash wages.

Census figures—the latest available are for 1954—show the number of farms in Pennsylvania as 128,000. It is estimated that the number has now dropped below 120,000.

Toward Larger Units
The dominant trend in farms in the state and nationally is toward larger units. It is generally felt that a larger unit, especially with modern equipment, is far more efficient than a small farm. In Pennsylvania, however, there is a large segment of the farm population which is in the part-time farmer category, particularly in areas surrounding railroad and mining centers.

Despite a growing use of migrant labor in Pennsylvania, there has been a 40 per cent decline in the number of hired workers on farms since 1950. The figures include persons doing one or more hours of farm work each week for pay. Again the figures are averages, with a wide range between seasons.

Jupiter Rocket Is Blown Apart; Piece Hits Earth

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A powerful Jupiter rocket was blown apart in a blazing display of missile fireworks over Cape Canaveral Thursday night.

It was the third ballistic weapon in a row to explode shortly after liftoff in the past month.

The Jupiter — the usually reliable 1,500-mile missile which also will provide the big punch for the Army's moon rocket—was deliberately destroyed after it swerved violently out of control several thousand feet high.

One huge chunk crashed back on the cape with a roar; other debris splashed into the ocean nearby. No one was injured and there was no property damage reported.

Salvage crews searched for broken pieces of the 60-foot rocket to help Army missilemen determine the trouble.

The Jupiter thundered aloft from billows of white flame and smoke, but appeared to sway slightly as it climbed toward space. After 32 seconds it was blown up by the range safety officer.

There was a bright flash and an ear-splitting noise. Then the broken war rocket spun earthward in looping, cartwheel fashion, trailing streams of white flame.

CARY GRANT IS TRAILBLAZER IN NEW REGIME

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Here's a special added attraction to last week's series on the new rulers of Hollywood: portrait of a pro-Cary Grant.

The smooth southpaw was the trailblazer of the new regime in the film industry. Now a dozen top stars hold the balance of power over the fading studio bosses.

"I was the first star to freelance," Grant recalled. "It was back in 1938 when I left Paramount. I had been doing pretty well there, but nothing sensational.

"Adolph Zukor wanted me to stay and he even offered to jump my salary from $2,500 a week to $3,500 instead of my next raise, $3,000. But I said no. I wasn't doing the kind of picture I wanted to do. If I stayed, I would be in the same position of having to take pictures that Gary Cooper, William Powell or Clive Brook turned down."

So Grant branched out on his own, and his services have been in demand by producers ever since. Largely a dramatic actor at Paramount, he established himself as the screen's best exponent of light comedy with films like "The Awful Truth," "Holiday" and "My Favorite Wife." His asking price was $300,000 a picture, and there were plenty of takers.

Has Share in Films

"Even though I had no contract ties, I had a certain appeal to the studios," he said. "You take a place like MGM. It had a great stable of stars, but they had all played opposite each other before—Spencer Tracy with Lana Turner, Clark Gable with Jean Harlow, etc.

"So it appealed to the studio bosses to bring this fellow in from the outside, no matter what they

Grant's bargaining power didn't diminish with the breakup of the studio contract player lists. In fact, he became an ever greater draw with the public's concentration on fewer big-name stars. And so he can exact not only great salaries—$750,000 is a common offer for a film — but an increasing share in ownership of his movies.

Practically every civilized state has based its calendar on that of the Romans.

JOBLESS ARE KEY TO VOTE IN MICHIGAN

By ROGER LANE
LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Economic woes hold the key to the Michigan election. On Nov. 4, voters will decide whom to blame.

Though the unemployment situation has shown improvement lately, it is a big talking point between Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams and the man who is trying to unseat him, Republican Paul D. Bagwell.

An October tabulation showed 420,000 people were jobless, more than 14 per cent of the state's work force. This compares with 485,000 in mid-August.

In Auto Industry
Most of the unemployment was in the auto industry. Improvement has been due largely to 1959 model production, and auto firms say things will get progressively better if the new cars sell well.

Williams has centered his campaign for a sixth consecutive term on charges that President Eisenhower and Republican policymakers are responsible for the workers' woes.

Williams, unquestionably the greatest vote getter in Michigan history, is aiming at another Democratic sweep to bolster his hopes for the presidential nomination in 1960.

Blaming Ike
Since last November, Williams has hammered at the theme that the hundreds of thousands with flattened pocketbooks and a backlog of rent and food bills owe their troubles to President Eisenhower and his policymakers.

He's fond of talking about the "Eisenhower recession."

In a counter offensive, Bagwell has told Michiganders they are reaping the harvest of 10 years of Williams.

Blames Williams
Bagwell says the governor has been hostile to business and partial to union labor. He says this has lost the state 200,000 factory jobs, mostly to its neighbors, between 1953 and 1957.

In Michigan, union labor is personified by Walter P. Reuther, United Auto Workers chief, a potent Williams all and target of man Republicans nationally.

U.S. Sen. Charles E. Potter, Republican bidding for re-election is caught in the Williams-Bagwell crossfire, a kind of innocent bystander handicapped by the No. 7 position on the ballot.

If Williams effectively pins the fault on the Republican elephant, Potter probably will go down the drain.

Professor In Race
The most interesting figure in the campaign is Bagwell, a 45-year-old Michigan State University speech professor who stepped forward to take the GOP nomination nobody else wanted.

A persuasive, friendly man, Bagwell quit a $17,000-a-year job to make the try against staggering political odds and in the face of personal handicaps. Twenty-seven years ago, he suffered a football injury that was followed by polio and partial paralysis in both legs. He still walks with a cane.

His campaign is expected to get a big lift toward the end, and a welcome bundle of cash, from two appearances of Vice President Nixon in the state Oct. 27, one a $100-a-plate dinner at Flint.

Potter In Background
The fact remains that he is up against the all-time Democratic champ in Michigan, Williams,

Allentown Man Heads Coroners

ALTOONA, Pa. (AP)—Clayton O. P. Werley of Allentown, Lehigh County, is the new president of the State Coroners Assn., succeeding Joseph Govekar of Johnstown, Cambria County.

In other election results at the close of the group's annual meeting Sunday Dr. Otto Miller of Ashland, Schuylkill County, was named first vice president and Dr. Edward Haegle of Mechanicsburg, Cumberland County, was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Reading was selected as the site of the 1959 convention.

"BERNADETTE" IS FEATURED ON TV TONIGHT

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP) — "Bernadette," a drama based on the French peasant girl who had a mystical experience at Lourdes just 100 years ago, will be presented tonight (Monday, 10 p. m., EDT) by Desilu Playhouse (CBS-TV).

A preview of the show last week revealed it as a fine vehicle for the talents of Pier Angeli. As Bernadette Soubirous, a frail, impoverished, devout girl who repeatedly sees a vision of a "lady in white" in a grotto near her home, Miss Angeli gives a memorable performance.

To a great degree one's enjoyment of "Bernadette" depends on the nature of one's own religious beliefs.

The drama develops the atmosphere of poverty and despair in the village at the foot of the Pyrenees where Bernadette had her remarkable vision and confronted the skepticism of both church and state. It reaches its climax when Bernadette uncovers a spring with healing properties.

"Swiss Family" Clever
"Swiss Family Robinson," as presented on NBC-TV Sunday night, was an extraordinarily clever modernization of a children's story that has been read for almost 150 years.

If you have wondered what reality was the theme of the story by Johann Wyss, the TV adaptation by M. L. Davenport spelled it out as "togetherness"—a word abhorred by some and admired by others.

In 1813, when Wyss wrote his story, he felt that the ideal family consisted of parents and four boys. The production by David Susskind and Alex March settled on the ideal American family of loving parents and two boys and one girl.

Had Wonderful Time
This American family Robinson had excellent parents in the persons of Walter Pidgeon and L.

tall, handsome 47-year-old heir to a toiletries fortune, is making a typical whirlwind effort. From 6 a.m. until late at night, he has wrung hands at factory gates, crossroads, shopping centers, union halls and nationality group meeting places — calling square dances, eating kielbasa (Polish sausage), or crowning a queen as the occasion demands.

Shoved into the background, Potter, a 41-year-old double amputee with 11 years in Congress, has a real fight on his hands.

Potter's opponent is L. Gov. Philip A. Hart, 45, a personable attorney and protégé of Williams, his classmate in law school.

Littlestown COMMUNION BREAKFAST BY HOLY NAME

Nearly a hundred were present at the annual Communion breakfast of the Holy Name Society of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, following attendance at mass and the reception of Communion. Seven new members were accepted into the society at special ceremonies immediately following the mass. New members are Ronald Beford, Donald Jones, Merle Little, Robert Oaster, Francis Prato, Larry Snyder and Kenneth Stuller. The pastor, the Rev. William A. Boyle, celebrated the mass and was in charge of the reception ceremonies.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick F. McGee, pastor of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary parish, McSherrystown, was guest speaker and his subject was "Real and True Knowledge of Our Faith." Msgr. McGee noted that the late Holy Father, Pope Pius XII was a perfect teacher, by example, of the Christian Doctrine, which all should follow; he challenged the Holy Name men to gain a good, solid knowledge of faith through reading Catholic papers and books, because a well informed Catholic is a better one and also a better citizen. "Live your faith and share it with others" was the speaker's admonition.

Prayers For Pope

Past President John R. Rudisill Sr. was toastmaster for the breakfast. There was a rising vote of thanks for the women who assisted with the preparation and serving. Male cooks were James V. Ulrich, Clyde H. Rohrbaugh and William Pfaff. It was announced that there will be a meeting of the Athletic committee of the society on Tuesday and all those interested in basketball are asked to attend. The quarterly meeting of the Southern Regional Holy Name Union will be held in York at 2:30 p.m. November 9. President Thomas French spoke briefly, welcoming the new members especially, and the pastor, Father Boyle, also gave a few remarks. The affair concluded with prayers offered for the repose of the souls of Pope Pius XII and Brother Robert Rexroth, the latter, a former member of the society.

At the morning masses, Father Boyle read pastoral letters from the Most Rev. George L. Leech, bishop of Harrisburg, regarding the observances to be kept following the death of the Pope and concerning the annual mission Sunday observance.

Requiem Mass Tonight
Tonight at 8 o'clock there will be a requiem high mass in St.

rairie Day, and three pleasant children in Dennis Hopper, Dennis Kohler and Patty Duke. Their cruise ended in shipwreck on an exotic island.

Father and children had a wonderful time, despite a hurricane (done on tape in this otherwise live production.) Mother was glad to return to civilization when the rescue ship arrived.

If the show was reminiscent of the summer the family went camping, that was its essential charm. After all, it was the best "family" show of the television season thus far.

Little Man Around The World Tells What He Had Been Thinking About Us Americans

EDITOR'S NOTE: In recent months Americans have learned an unpleasant fact: in many parts of the world our motives are suspect, we are disliked, even hated. Why? The Associated Press conducted hundreds of interviews around the globe to find the answer. AP reporters collected 50,000 words of quotes from the elusive "common man" to capture his idea of the United States. These thousands of words have been distilled in four articles portraying an intimate, living picture of the world's image of America.

By SAUL PETT
The Associated Press

In Uganda, in East Africa, the village elders sat around a huge cauldron of thin corn beer steaming over a slow fire.

Each man sucked thoughtfully on a long reed that trailed from his lips to the cauldron. From time to time, a woman added water from a gourd.

"In America, they drink beer from tins," an Associated Press reporter said.

"What thing is America?" asked a grizzled old man.

With a silent nod, the question was passed down the elders in order of seniority. No one seemed to know, until it came to a middle-aged man distinguished by the fact that he wore shoes and a grease-spotted felt hat with a

... What Thing Is America?

Said Liang Hung-chao, Chinese fisherman: "America is very big, and very rich, and very far away. ... Americans do not care about the troubles of people whose skin is yellow."

green feather.

He took the reed from his mouth and spat on the packed earth compound.

"America," said the worldly one with the hat and shoes, "is a big tribe of England."

Circulate Joke

What thing is America? In Warsaw, Poland, behind the Iron Curtain, this joke was circulated: A Communist party do others see us midway in the 20th century? What is the world's image of America? Of Americans? Of American intentions, American life, American leadership, American behavior, national and individual?

Tour 30 Countries

In 30 countries of the world, on all the earth's inhabited continents, Associated Press reporters sought a picture of America. They asked their questions of the elusive average man, the man in the street, the man in the factory, in the field, on the fishing boat.

Here's what they found:

Many people abroad dislike and distrust us. More seem to envy than admire us. Many accept our leadership as a fact of life, often disagreeable. Many regard us as rich and strong but also erratic, contradictory and unsure of ourselves.

Many agree that America wants peace but they see no idealism in this. They do not regard it as seeking peace for peace's sake. They argue: True, America wants peace; wouldn't you, if you were rich and had everything you wanted, everything to gain by peace and everything to lose by war? And many think our protestation of peaceful intent is but a thin disguise to control world markets.

Think We're Rich

As individuals, many people abroad find us friendly, casual, unworried, uncultured, superficial, loud, insensitive and occasionally obnoxious. They are convinced we're all rich. To that extent, they exaggerate. But in the examples they cite, they do not exaggerate, and they reveal more of their own hunger than our wealth.

Many people around the world visualize American life, not in terms of gold-paved streets or Cadillacs or 40-room mansions, but in terms of a refrigerator and a roof and inside plumbing.

Freedom? Democracy? Equality of opportunity? Many abroad admire these things in America but what about the Negroes in the South? What about Little Rock? Over and over and over again, they ask, what about Little Rock?

Unaware Of Greatness

Curiously, despite the billions spent by the United States to win friends and influence people around the world, there are several things you don't hear mentioned often abroad in an appraisal

RESTOCKING OF QUEMOYS BEING PUSHED

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The Chinese Nationalists pushed the restocking of the Quemoy islands today as Red China stretched its cease-fire from one week to three.

Two LSTs discharged their ammunition and supply cargoes on Quemoy's beach a few hours after Peiping announced that the one-week cease-fire expiring Sunday midnight was being extended for two more weeks.

Quemoy's civilians relaxed. More farmers went to their peanut, sorghum and vegetable fields than at any time since the Communists started their massive artillery siege Aug. 23.

The activity center may now al of America. Few seem to remember that we fought two world wars and a bloody police action in Korea without seeking territory for ourselves. Few seem aware that the Negro's situation in America has improved. Few mention that we have sent much treasure abroad purely for humanitarian reasons. Few display a burning desire to migrate and live in America, whose high standard of living they frankly envy.

This is the image of America found around the world. Like all ideas held in the minds of men, it is an image that reflects parts of reality and illusion. It reflects what men see, what they want to see and what they think they see. It is an image seen through many mirrors.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all — results were so thorough that sufferers made shift to diplomatic talks in Warsaw between Red China and the United States. The eighth meeting of ambassadors is Wednesday.

The Chinese Nationalists hailed the second stage of the cease-fire as another Communist defeat, but were suspicious both of Communist intentions and of the talks in Warsaw.

Sampson Chen, government spokesman, declared "we should not let down our guard" because the Communists probably would use the next two weeks to prepare their next move.

There was speculation that the Nationalists were now prepared to reply with a massive bombardment of their own if the Red Chinese again open up.

Col. Douglas Lane, chief U.S. military adviser on the island, said on leaving for Formosa for conferences that Quemoy now was "in as good or better position" supply-wise as on Aug. 23.

During the cease-fire the Nationalists have landed bigger guns on Quemoy — including eight-inch howitzers and 155mm. Long Toms.

Peiping gave a hard-to-understand reason for extending the cease-fire: "To see what the opposite side is going to do and to enable our compatriots on Quemoy, both military and civilian, to get sufficient supplies, including food and military equipment, to strengthen their entrenchment."

Even Communist comrades "may not yet understand this for the time being" but will understand it later, the announcement said.

It declared, however, that the extension would benefit all Chinese and "hurts only the Americans."

Newlyweds Are Killed In Crash

PITTSBURGH (A) — The families of a newly married Pittsburgh couple expected to receive postcards after the two reached Niagara Falls, but instead made funeral arrangements for them today.

Erwin A. Herold, 25, and Sylvia Jean Corbett, 23, were married here Saturday night. They drove off on their honeymoon trip promising to send back postcards.

En route to Niagara Falls early Sunday, their auto collided with another car on Route 19 near Portersville in Butler County, about 40 miles north of Pittsburgh.

Herold was killed instantly. Sylvia died Sunday night in Ellwood City Hospital.

Was Policeman; Now Church Pastor

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y. (AP) — Albert F. Arbogast Sr. was a city police patrolman with nine years of service on May 1. A month later, he was the pastor of three rural Methodist Churches in Malden, Quarryville, and Palenville.

The Kingston native said he long had wanted to be a minister. After his appointment to the police force in 1948, he resumed interrupted church work and study.

On May 1 he received his preacher's license, and shortly afterward his appointment.

The Rev. and Mrs. Arbogast have two sons, Albert Jr., 16, and William 3rd, 15.

ALWAYS SOMETHING

WATERLOO, Neb. (AP) — Several years of drought turned a lot of Nebraska farmers to irrigation.

This year the shoe has been on the other foot and abnormally heavy rains have caused flooding and left water standing in man fields.

A number of farmers, like Clarence Clover who lives south of remedy: They simply use their irrigation equipment in reverse and pump the water out of their fields.

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — Police Sgt. DeWitt Larsen closed the books on the obstruction that was blocking traffic near a bridge. His terse report read: "Ran beaver back in river."

Little Man Around The World Tells What He Had Been Thinking About Us Americans

EDITOR'S NOTE: In recent months Americans have learned an unpleasant fact: in many parts of the world our motives are suspect, we are disliked, even hated. Why? The Associated Press conducted hundreds of interviews around the globe to find the answer. AP reporters collected 50,000 words of quotes from the elusive "common man" to capture his idea of the United States. These thousands of words have been distilled in four articles portraying an intimate, living picture of the world's image of America.

By SAUL PETT
The Associated Press

In Uganda, in East Africa, the village elders sat around a huge cauldron of thin corn beer steaming over a slow fire.

Each man sucked thoughtfully on a long reed that trailed from his lips to the cauldron. From time to time, a woman added water from a gourd.

"In America, they drink beer from tins," an Associated Press reporter said.

"What thing is America?" asked a grizzled old man.

With a silent nod, the question was passed down the elders in order of seniority. No one seemed to know, until it came to a middle-aged man distinguished by the fact that he wore shoes and a grease-spotted felt hat with a

... What Thing Is America?

Said Liang Hung-chao, Chinese fisherman: "America is very big, and very rich, and very far away. Americans do not care about the troubles of people whose skin is yellow."

green feather.

He took the reed from his mouth and spat on the packed earth compound.

"America," said the worldly one with the hat and shoes, "is a big tribe of England."

Circulate a joke

In Warsaw, Poland, behind the Iron Curtain, this joke was circulated. A Communist party secretary chided a lathe operator in an auto plant. "Hear you've got a brother out of work in Detroit. Why don't you write him and tell him to come home?"

"Sure," said the lathe operator, "but who'd send us the food parcels?"

What thing is America?

In Morocco, a mechanic named Mohammed el Fassy keeps three photographs pinned to the wall of his tiny room. On the left, Nasser. On the right, King Mohammed V of Morocco. In the middle, Gary Cooper.

What thing is America?

In Budapest, a man said: "The Americans sent the Marines when it was a question of Middle East oil. But in Hungary, they wouldn't do a thing when it was only a matter of human freedom."

Americans Have Power

In Paris, a 60-year-old night watchman, an impartial cynic, shrugged, spread his arms, sighed:

"Money and power run the world and the Americans have money and power."

In Hong Kong, a Chinese insurance man said:

"Americans are lousy. They are not sincere. Their government is stupid."

What thing is America? This republic called the United States, this people this way of living and thinking, this position and posture — all the things called American — what do they suggest to the rest of the world? How do others see us midway in the 20th century? What is the world's image of America? Of Americans? Of American intentions, American life, American leadership, American behavior, national and individual?

Tour 30 Countries

In 30 countries of the world, on all the earth's inhabited continents, Associated Press reporters sought a picture of America. They asked their questions of the elusive average man, the man in the street, the man pulling the rickshaw, the man in the factory, in the field, on the fishing boat.

Here's what they found:

Many people abroad dislike and distrust us. More seem to envy than admire us. Many accept our leadership as a fact of life, often disagreeable. Many regard us as rich and strong but also erratic, contradictory and unsure of ourselves.

Many agree that America wants peace but they see no idealism in this. They do not regard it as seeking peace for peace's sake. They argue: True, America wants peace; wouldn't you, if you were rich and had everything you wanted, everything to gain by peace and everything to lose by war? And many think our protestation of peaceful intent is but a thin disguise to control world markets.

Think We're Rich

As individuals, many people abroad find us friendly, casual, unworried, uncultured, superficial, loud, insensitive and occasionally obnoxious. They are convinced we're all rich. To that extent, they exaggerate. But in the examples, they cite, they do not exaggerate, and they reveal more of their own hunger than our wealth.

Many people around the world visualize American life, not in terms of gold-paved streets or Cadillacs or 40-room mansions, but in terms of a refrigerator and a roof and inside plumbing.

Freedom? Democracy? Equality of opportunity? Many abroad admire these things in America but what about the Negroes in the South? What about Little Rock? Over and over and over again, they ask, what about Little Rock?

Unaware Of Greatness

Curiously, despite the billions spent by the United States to win friends and influence people around the world, there are several things you don't hear mentioned often abroad in an appraisal

RESTOCKING OF QUEMOYS BEING PUSHED

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The Chinese Nationalists pushed their restocking of the Quemoy islands today as Red China stretched its cease-fire from one week to three.

Two LSTs discharged their ammunition and supply cargoes on Quemoy's beach a few hours after Peiping announced that the one-week cease-fire expiring Sunday midnight was being extended for two more weeks.

Quemoy's civilians relaxed. More farmers went to their peanut, sorghum and vegetable fields than at any time since the Communists started their massive artillery siege Aug. 23.

The activity center may now

al of America.

Few seem to remember that we fought two world wars and a bloody police action in Korea without seeking territory for ourselves. Few seem aware that the Negro's situation in America has improved. Few mention that we have sent much treasure abroad purely for humanitarian reasons. Few display a burning desire to migrate and live in America, whose high standard of living they frankly envy.

This is the image of America found around the world. Like all ideas held in the minds of men, it is an image that reflects parts of reality and illusion. It reflects what men see, what they want to see and what they think they see. It is an image seen through many mirrors.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made shift to diplomatic talks in Warsaw between Red China and the United States. The eighth meeting of ambassadors is Wednesday.

The Chinese Nationalists hailed the second stage of the cease-fire as another Communist defeat, but were suspicious both of Communist intentions and of the talks in Warsaw.

Sampson Chen, government spokesman, declared "we should not let down our guard" because the Communists probably would use the next two weeks to prepare their next move.

Land Bigger Guns

There was speculation that the Nationalists were now prepared to reply with a massive bombardment of their own if the Red Chinese again open up.

Col. Douglas Lane, chief U.S. military adviser on the island, said on leaving for Formosa for conferences that Quemoy now was "in as good or better position" supply-wise as on Aug. 23.

During the cease-fire the Nationalists have landed bigger guns on Quemoy — including eight-inch howitzers and 155mm. Long Toms.

Hard To Understand

Peiping gave a hard-to-understand reason for extending the cease-fire: "To see what the opposite side is going to do and to enable our compatriots on Quemoy, both military and civilian, to get sufficient supplies, including food and military equipment, to strengthen their entrenchment."

Even Communist comrades "may not yet understand this for the time being" but will understand it later, the announcement said.

It declared, however, that the extension would benefit all Chinese and "hurts only the Americans."

Hope For Split

There was a hint, as in the an-

Newlyweds Are Killed In Crash

PITTSBURGH (A)—The families of a newly married Pittsburgh couple expected to receive postcards after the two reached Niagara Falls, but instead made funeral arrangements for them today.

Erwin A. Herold, 25, and Sylvia Jean Corbett, 23, were married here Saturday night. They drove off on their honeymoon trip promising to send back postcards.

En route to Niagara Falls early Sunday, their auto collided with another car on Route 19 near Portersville in Butler County, about 40 miles north of Pittsburgh.

Herold was killed instantly. Sylvia died Sunday night in Ellwood City Hospital.

announcement of the original cease-fire, that Red China hopes to drive a wedge between the United States and its Nationalist allies.

Peng Teh-huai, the Red Chinese defense minister who signed the announcement, said the taking of Formosa and the offshore islands from the Nationalists was China's internal affair and the United States had no right to "meddle."

Washington reports said the United States is expected now to begin withdrawing some of its force in the Formosa area soon, and to put pressure on President Chiang Kai-shek to reduce his big garrison on Quemoy.

Chiang has reacted hotly to previous suggestions by U.S. Secretary of State Dulles for a thinning of the Nationalist garrison.

Was Policeman; Now Church Pastor

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y. (AP) — Albert F. Arbogast Sr. was a city police patrolman with nine years of service on May 1. A month later, he was the pastor of three rural Methodist Churches in Malden, Quarryville, and Palenville.

The Kingston native said he long had wanted to be a minister. After his appointment to the police force in 1948, he resumed interrupted church work and study.

On May 1 he received his preacher's license, and shortly afterward his appointment.

The Rev. and Mrs. Arbogast have two sons, Albert Jr., 16, and William 3rd, 15.

ALWAYS SOMETHING

WATERLOO, Neb. (AP) — Several years of drought turned a lot of Nebraska farmers to irrigation.

This year the shoe has been on the other foot and abnormally heavy rains have caused flooding and left water standing in man fields.

A number of farmers, like Clarence Clover who lives south of remedy: They simply use their irrigation equipment in reverse and pump the water out of their fields.

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — Police Sgt. DeWitt Larsen closed the books on the obstruction that was blocking traffic near a bridge. His terse report read: "Ran beaver back in river."
